MOONSHINE, MUSHROOMS & MAYHEM

BURGER WELLINGTON
3RD-23RD AUGUST

FEATHERSTON STREET—

Office workers, lawyers and city regulars have been slipping quietly through unmarked doors after dark, following rumours of a secret establishment serving outlawed flavours and exceptional bourbon.

Those fortunate enough to gain entry speak of smoked pimento cheese, maple facon and a mysterious moonshine mayonnaise, all stacked atop a smashed mushroom patty. Yet when questioned, every patron tells the same story—they can't reveal the entrance... or the password.

Authorities remain one step behind.

* CITY DESK * POLICE RAID ENDS EMPTY-HANDED

Officers searched the premises late last night following a tip-off. No contraband found. No suspects arrested. Many burgers consumed.

BUSINESS DISTRICT BUZZ

Tram conductors report a notable increase in after-hours passengers alighting near Featherston Street. Several witnesses claim to have heard jazz music coming from somewhere they couldn't find.

RAID UNSUCCESSFUL ANOTHER NIGHT. ANOTHER FAILURE.

Police continue their search for the elusive speakeasy. So far, no luck. So far, no leads.
